Steve Miller Band Announce First Austin City Limits Taping

Austin City Limits announces the first taping in its new state-of-the-art home at The Moody Theater with a special performance by Steve Miller Band including material from his soon-to-be-released new Blues Rock album entitled "Let Your Hair Down." Preceding the taping there will be a free party with music, events and more in downtown Austin on Saturday, February 26, from 3 to 8 p.m. sponsored in part by Cirrus Logic, The 2nd Street District and The Moody Foundation.

â This is a dream come true for ACL â a new home in downtown Austin that will be an amazing world-class music venue and studio soundstage combined, â said Austin City Limits Executive Producer Terry Lickona. â After 36 years, we have big plans for the future, and that future begins on February 26th. The best is yet to come! â

Lauded rock guitarist Steve Miller and his band (Roadrunner/Loud & Proud) have been inspiring fans for more than four decades with Miller's unique brand of rousing American rock 'n' roll. His catalog includes 17 studio albums and multiple hit singles including â The Joker, â â Take The Money and Run, â â SJet Airliner, â â Abracadabra â and more.

Produced by KLRU-TV, Austin PBS, Austin City Limits has become the longest-running music series on American television by presenting audiences with the most diverse, original, and cutting-edge talent from today's music scene. The series will take this same spirit of creativity into the new venue giving more of Austin a seat for a new era of legendary performances.

For more information on how to get a free ticket to the Austin City Limits taping go to austincitylimits.org. Tickets are limited and a ticket is required to attend the taping. There will be a free public celebration - 2ND ST. SOUNDCHECK - in conjunction with the taping in Downtown Austin thanks to KLRU's partners Cirrus Logic and The 2nd Street District.
