Southern California rockers RED SEA RISING signs with KI/Interscope /Universal

Attack Media Group is pleased to announce their involvement with Southern California rock force Red Sea Rising, starting off strong with a distribution deal through KI/Interscope/Universal.

"It's been fantastic working with Red Sea Rising so far" says Mark Berry, CEO of Attack Media Group. " They have had a fantastic webpresence since before our partnership, and with this distribution deal, I'm looking forward to seeing them get the international recognition they deserve." Based in Reno, Nevada, Red Sea Rising members Jeffrey, David, Trey, and Ken have been writing high caliber songs for some time now, writing as a group, and recording their hits on their own, using lead guitarist Ken Pinkstaff!'s engineering skills. Jeffrey Kerr (Jett Ryder), the lead singer, has an amazing range with power and passion. His awe inspiring vocal skills along with an incredible stage presence is what gives Red Sea Rising its edge. Taking inspiration from hard rock all over the world, Red Sea Rising's engaging lyrics, talented musicianship, and all around hard rocking will not go unnoticed. Having already released a music video for their first single Walk Beside Me - available on their official website

"Red Sea Rising's popularity is sure to be on the rise.!"

"This is only the beginning," says Mark. "I'm confident people will be hearing more of Red Sea Rising very soon."
